

Introductory Activity: Common Threads

Summary

Common Threads divides your participants into groups. It is used to get participants talking to each other, especially if they are typically very shy. In groups of 2-3, participants come up with similarities within their group and present them to the audience.

Details

Time: 10 minutes

Best for session #: Any

Instructions

1. Divide your participants into groups of 2-3 people.
2. Have them come up with one similarity between all the members of their group.
3. They should have as many similarities as there are members in their group. (3 members, 3 similarities.)
4. Group by group, have each member introduce one of the similarities found for their group.