

Speech Evaluation: Gestures

Evaluation Details

Evaluation For: _____ Evaluation By: _____

Speech Title: _____ Date: _____

Speaker's Objectives:

- Use gestures, facial expressions, and other body movements to emphasize points in the speech.
- Avoid movements that contradict the content of the speech.

The gestures should be smooth and natural. Suggest a few basic ways to improve, but include lots of encouraging remarks. Use this form to prepare for your verbal evaluation.

Evaluation Notes

What was the purpose of the speech as you understood it?

How well did the introduction and conclusion support the purpose?

Provide examples of body movement, facial expressions, and gestures used by the speaker that improved the quality of their speech.

How effective were the speaker's gestures overall?

Did any movements or expressions distract you from the speech content? List some suggestions for improvement.

1) _____

2) _____

What strong points does the speaker have already? Provide two or three strengths if possible.

To end your evaluation, say: Thank you for your speech, I look forward to hearing you speak again.