

Speech Evaluation: Icebreaker

Evaluation Details

Evaluation For: _____ Evaluation By: _____

Speech Title: _____ Date: _____

Speaker's Objectives:

- Introduce him/herself to the audience.
- Deliver a speech with a beginning, middle, and end.

The speech should have a clear beginning, body, and end. Suggest a few basic ways to improve, but include lots of encouraging remarks. Use this form to prepare for your verbal evaluation.

Evaluation Notes

In what ways did we get to know the speaker better? Provide two or three ways if possible.

Was the speaker well-prepared? How do you know?

Did the speaker talk loudly and clearly? Give examples.

Did the speech have an opening, body, and conclusion? How do you know?

List one or two suggestions for the speaker that would help them improve their speech.

1) _____

2) _____

What strong points does the speaker have already? Provide two or three strengths if possible.

To end your evaluation, say: Thank you for your speech, I look forward to hearing you speak again.